

Our Approach in Action

The first step toward possibility is self-sufficiency - the ability to meet basic needs without public or private assistance.

Achieving this step means looking at families as a whole and addressing their immediate and long-term needs across the areas of education, financial stability, and health.

We take into account that a child's success in school and future career depend on a stable home, where skilled, working caregivers can provide shelter, food, and health benefits.